“Christian is an out of the box thinker and he's your man to get things done! He has a positive attitude and a strong work ethic. He always pulled through in a pinch and did amazing things on little to no budget with his excellent negotiation tactics and drive to make some "magic" happen. He's reliable, easy to work with and someone you will be lucky to have on your team!”

“Christian is a hands-on director and producer, who loves his work and brings everybody along for the ride! I thoroughly enjoyed working with him when he directed me in a show, while appearing in the show and producing it as well. He's a bright, funny, talented man - one of the best people I know.”

John Combs, The Antaeus Company

“Christian Meoli is a powerhouse, a true force of nature. His play, the Dadaists was an inspired history play, enveloped in the spirit of its subject. Where mere playwrights would have been content with the play itself, Christian launched a series of extraordinary and eclectic performances inspired by the Dada movement, but capturing an undiscovered well of bizarre talent unique to 21st century Los Angeles. His work since, both as producer and playwright has been equally unique and eclectic, often inspired, always exceptional.”

Drew Brody, Producer

“Sheer brilliance, shout out loud talent, a maverick extraordinaire... Christian Meoli is all that and more. Anyone fortunate enough to cross paths with Christian, let alone work with him, should consider of any project they could be doing together, they just increased its value by association.”

Tany Soussana, Owner / President, The Soussana Group

“Christian is a cutting edge innovator. He is not afraid to try things that have never been done before and always delivers the goods. His play "Octomom the Musical" was a barrel of laughs from start to finish. His socially/politically relevant events have been dynamic and provocative. The movies that he has helped to market have had themes that are instrumental in waking up society to help us all create a better world. Christian Meoli has truly inspired me and others in his unceasing work to uplift humanity on many levels. I have enjoyed collaborating and working with him on various projects. He is authentic and has that rare quality that we all searching for called integrity!”
